

THE WHATEVERLY
BROTHERS

"The Whateverlys were really a power group, tight, expressive and on target. Great job at Tumbleweed (Festival). These guys have way too much fun." - Chris Lunn, Founder of Victory Music

"The show was fantastic, and we would love to have them back! Even customers who were just picking up to-go were boppin' to their music and saying they wished they could stay." - Cassandra Backmann, The Den Coffeehouse

www.theWhateverlyBrothers.com

Shimmering harmonies, striking arrangements, and offbeat humor

The Whateverly Brothers grew out of three friends enjoying playing music together. Starting as a maritime music group, they soon followed their wide interests and backgrounds into many styles and genres. Dan Roberts, Chris Glanister and Rob Kneisler, all seasoned folk music collectors, performers, and multi-instrumentalists, have delighted audiences with their varying repertoire, shimmering harmonies, striking arrangements, and offbeat humor. Chris Lunn of “Ancient Victories” fame describes the band as “a power group, tight and expressive”.

The Whateverly Brothers have released three CDs do date to wide popular acclaim and are currently working on their fourth, which will be focused on maritime-themed songs under the working title of “Return of the Jetty”. They also have a live EP and a Christmas album planned for later in the year.

The Whateverly brothers have been performing for wide ranges of audiences - young and old, small and large alike - for over a decade and wherever the Brothers go, the fun follows!

Releases

- For External Use Only (2008)
- Live – Take Two (2009)
- I Hear Voices (2013)

Venues and Visits

Tumbleweed Music Festival (Richland, WA)
Lavender Festival (Sequim, WA)
Wooden Boat Festival (Port Townsend, WA)
Egan’s Ballard Jamhouse (Seattle, WA)
The Conway Muse (Conway, WA)
The Couth Buzzard (Seattle, WA)

Lake Union Wooden Boat Fest (Seattle, WA)
Maritime Music Festival (Port Gamble, WA)
C&P Coffee (Seattle, WA)
Woodlands Pizza (Seattle, WA)
The Den Coffehouse (Bothell, WA)
The Black Dog Arts Café (Snoqualmie, WA)

The Whateverly Brothers have played at many other fine establishments and private functions throughout the greater Seattle area and the Pacific Northwest region.

For booking information contact Rob at 425-761-3224 or at info@thewhateverlybrothers.com